New Structure is Expected to Position the Company to Pursue Sustainable Growth and Long-Term Shareholder Value

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Nov. 06, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Advanced Flower Capital Inc. (Nasdaq: AFCG) ("Advanced Flower Capital", "AFC" or the "Company") today announced that shareholders have approved all proposals related to the Company's previously announced plan to convert from a real estate investment trust ("REIT") to a business development company ("BDC") regulated under the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "1940 Act") (the "Conversion"). The proposals included both the approval of a new 1940 Act-compliant investment advisory agreement between the Company and its external manager, AFC Management, LLC, and the application to the Company of the reduced asset coverage requirements for BDCs permitted under the 1940 Act, aligning the Company's leverage parameters with those of other BDCs, in each case as described in the Company's proxy statement filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). The vote, held at the Company's Special Meeting of Shareholders, represents a significant milestone in AFC's strategic evolution.

"We appreciate the continued support of our shareholders, which underscores confidence in our long-term vision for AFC," said Leonard M. Tannenbaum, CFA, Chairman of the Board of Directors. "Converting to a BDC will allow us to expand our investable scope beyond real estate-backed loans and pursue a broader set of opportunities across the market, which we believe will strengthen AFC's ability to generate consistent, risk-adjusted returns."

Final voting results from the Special Meeting will be filed with the SEC.

The Conversion, which remains subject to the approval of certain matters by AFC's Board of Directors, is expected to be completed in the first quarter of 2026. Upon completion of the Conversion, AFC will continue to trade on the Nasdaq under its existing ticker symbol, AFCG.
